

This makes the data available through the ALMA archive, but it will not be used in the generation of the imaging data products.
 This makes the data available through the ALMA archive, but it will not meet all QA2 requirements and no further observations are conducted.